When we see people as God sees them, we include everyone as a member of God's family. Each of us is a reflection of God, made in His image and likeness. Our colours, shapes, sizes and personalities manifest the artistry of God. We are all invited to celebrate with the Lord His love and goodness to us. The People of God, the Church, is not complete without all of us. Our strength lies in our diversity. Accepting our differences and working together extends to all the banquet of life and is the only path to peace.

*Our colors, shapes,
sizes and personalities
manifest the
artistry of God*
