Generosity is the willingness to go beyond what is expected, beyond what is fair, and give freely. Often generosity violates our sense of justice, even common sense. But generosity is admired because it seeks a higher good and a greater value, honouring both the recipient and the giver. God's measure is a generous one. Because of His love, He does not consider what we truly desire, but grants us His grace and forgiveness. He seeks a higher good for us - life with Him forever. Our response of love and praise honours the Lord as well as ourselves.
