The source of unity for the Church is Jesus Christ himself. When two or three are gathered, He is present, providing the common ground, holy ground, on which they are united. The sign and proof of this unity is love. When we sin we are divided, making our own way. But if we are united to Jesus, our minds and hearts are set in a common goal, the loving salvation of all the world. The invisible bond of unity is given expression in the visible love of others.
